Issue 15

Vol. 1 I hate the Orioles.

Hey, we're finally back - sorry to bother you all. Remember us?... No? Well, in that case, let me reintroduce you to the Chris Rutzen's Dad's Handwriting Fan Club, a festive manifestation of youth, energy, and Creativity, with a zealous devotion to a man and his handwriting, a ticking time bomb set on a collision course to explode in the face of convention. This quiet existence, having been sprouted from the mind of a mere Robert Lin clone, has won the loyalty of countless individuals and has struck fear within the weak hearts of power-hungry school administrators. Indeed, the masses are a force to be reckoned with.

In the uncertainty that appears before us, we the seditious members of the CRD.H.F.C. have once again arrived.

Fan Club News

T-Shirts • For all of you who didn't get to purchase CRDHFC T-shirts last year, we have more of the pretty things now, still $3.00!

New Jersey • Well, as always, there's not much new this month. Welcome the nice, new New Jersey chapter to the Club.

Pat Hu has switched barber shops. "It was time for a change," he said after foregoing his usual Ink's cut to go to Emory's. He would not comment on the potential future of his cephalic adventures.

member count: let's say 400, more or less. Don't be bitter. Don't litter! Do your friendly, hardworking custodians (and everyone else, too) a favor.

If you're in the club & have friends in the club who don't have their GAZETTES make sure they find JOE or PAT or, if BRIAN parker to get their own copies.

MEMBER OF THE MONTH - CUSTODIAN X

For a longtime Custodian X has been a loyal fan of CRD's H. He had the duty of cleaning up the discarded Gazettes after they came out and enjoyed the Club from afar. Then Figurehead Secretary (who actually does plenty of work) Bryan Parker met Custodian X and introduced him to Pat and Joe. We are proud to have such an amiable man making our school a cleaner, happier place (and adding new demographics to our fan base).

Speak-in  The Young EMPIIR

Q: What CRDHFC member would be a good candidate for U.S. President?

Bryan Parker—"Jeff Miles, easily. He'll take TR's advice to the extreme: Speak softly and carry a big stick."

Jeff Miles—"Pat Hu, of course."

Pat Hu—"Rob Susel, 'cause he's losing his hair."

Ed Evans—"Ben Ruttan or Chris Gless."

John Rockwood—"Rifat Hasan would do a good job."

Jess Proske—" [CENSORED] "

Antoine Wright—"Joe, because he is a great guy and I have faith in him."

Joe G.F.—"The Empiir's Third Prong, with Nathan Reyes as V.P. and Pat Hu's As campaign manager."

Robby Jacob—"Me, because I like to listen to Deee-lites. Snapple is my favorite drink."

Jon Crail—"A rib-Q; it wouldn't say much."

Bret Crews—"Pat and Joe will be able to balance the budget."

Dante Casagrande—"Mr. Hill*, for his views on life and pursuit of happiness."

Jason Bogovich—"Mr. Gesford Pres. and Mr. Hill* V.P. have the same rare blood type."

Nick Boncek—"Chris Rutzen has name recognition. If Chuck could run as Chris Rutzen's Dad, then he'd win."

*Just think of Mr. Hill's presidential addresses!!

ENEMY of the MONTH: Patrick Hu

All right, all right, Crazy Joe, I've got time. I'll get to it."

This month's most wanted is Club President Pat Hu, whose fault it is that this issue is so late. But take it easy on him, guys; he needs a healthy hand to pen next issue.

Could this be Empiir mastermind Nathan Reyes's attempt to begin the Club's downfall?

The Mrs. Hennen CORNER!!!

What do we know about Emily Hennen?

- She used to teach Geometry but retired last year.

- She's a grandma.

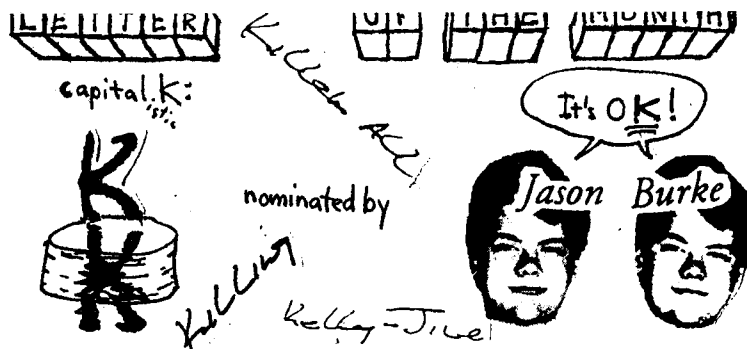

- Ben Ruttan & Pat Hu used to sing Pearl Jam songs in her class.

- Joe was appointed VP in her classroom.

- She yelled at Bryan P. for rolling marbles on the floor.

- Once, Pat Hu said hello to her in the hall and she replied, "Hello, Robert!"

- She's such a nice lady.

Pat Hu's WORD OF THE MONTH:

F(kellousa) /fir-haus / 2: a big-haired late 1980s pop-rock ensemble that created such musical masterpieces as "Don't Treat Me Bad" and "Love of a Lifetime" 2: Amy Bubenzer's favorite band in the seventh grade <After a long night of rocking the house and hitting on teenage girls, ~ went backstage to relax with some beer.>

ANNIVERSARY INTERNATIONAL!

Come Wednesdays after school to room #205. Please.

SAVE POLITICAL PRISONERS.

A.K.A. HEART BEAT, #930 E. MAIN, KEN

Hey there from Meadville, PA CRDHFC! I was tempted to send a postcard with a bunch of chicks wearing the camera and it said "Greetings from Meadville!" Basically, the town is full of a bunch of inbred, toothless, crack babies. Once you enter campus, you have crossed some time/space dimension and are in an entirely different place. The campus is beautiful and the people on the campus have all, or most, of their teeth. It's great here I love being free - even though I'm always tired and eat crappy food. The one thing that I miss about Kent is all of you great guys and of course - the club. How's everything going? I trust that you are going to get the queer out! I haven't been going to Church, Pat, so I guess that I can't tell you to go anymore. Sundays are my sleep catch-up - do some homework - days. Ohh - I'm going to give you my email. I love getting email and I get very, very sad when there is no new mail in my mailbox. It's a really cool address: Colemac @ alleg.edu. Everyone should write to me because then I'll write them back and they'll get new mail too - it's just a big circle of happiness. Nobody can lose, well, I must go and act like a responsible college student now. See you all soon - I'll be back Oct. 18!

I thought he was from India.

Hola. It's amazing,
the CRDHFC has roots
in Mexico. Well I haven't finished a latrine yet, but I started bits and pieces of all of them (11). There's plenty of beans and tortillas.
When I get back to the states I'm going to really appreciate my toilet.
